In the Great Riot at Homestead.

Hugh O'Donnell to Be Arrested

So Soon as He Can Be Located.

Other Arrests Will Also Be Made.

The Men Are Greatly Excited.

It Is Thought the Carnegle Co. Is Playing a Bold Stroke to Carry His Point.

Perrsacus, July 18 .- John McLuckie, burgess or chief municipal officer of Homestead, is sleeping on a cot in one of the cells of the county jail tonight. Messages are being sent to a dozen points between here and New York seeking the aid of the police authorities for the arrest of Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the strikers, and warrants are in the hands of the officers of the law for his arrest as a participant in the Homestead riot. The intention of the Carnegie company to institute crimmal proceedings against the Homestead leaders in the event of the nizance of the recent not and which was forcasted in the despatches of the the United Press this forenoon was carried into effect much quicker than had been anticipated or than the authorities at the executive offices who feared the effect of a premature publication of their intentions were willing to inti-

The preliminary statements of the proceedings were conducted with conaderable secrecy. It was shortly be fore noon when Secretary Lovejoy of the Carnegie company sauntered leisurely into the office of Alderman Mc-Master at Diamond and Grant streets. He was unaccompanied and by a curious coincidence nobody but the alderman was in the office at the time the constables attached to the place being behind the closed doors of the ante-room. Secretary Lovejoy prepared to lay an information against a number of men for the crime of murder. The alderman proceeded to draw up the papers. Charges Wilful Murder.

Conducted With Secreey

The information set forth that in Mufflin township, in the county of Allegheny and the state of Pennsylvania on the 6th of July the defendants did, of their own malice aforethought, feloniously and riotously, with force of arms and with deadly weapons, kill and murder Thomas Conners, a Pinkerton watchman, and Silas Wayne, a worker at the mills; and that this information was made upon information received and believed to be true by the deponent, who therefore prayed that warrants might be jesued, and that the men to be named might be arrested and held on the charge of murder. When this document had been drawn up the alderman suggested that it would be better to have two informations-one relating to the killing of Conners and the other to the killing of

This was done. Secretary Lovejoy named as the men accused Hugh O'Donnell, John McLuckie, Sylvester Cricklow, Anthony Flaherty, Samuel Burkett, James Flannigan and Hugh Ross. In one information the name of O'Donnell stood first while in the other it stood second. When the papers had been drawn up Secretary Lovejoy listened to the reading of the oath, kissed the Bible, appended his signature to the information, buttoned his eack coat, shook hands with the justice and muntered out of the office as leisurely and to all outward appearances as free from care as he had entered a half hour before. No time was lost in serving

Ta those about him McLuckie said ne Charged With Wilful and O'Donnell were not leaders, but the amailest of the strikers, and as for nimeelf he did not know if he was any onger a member of the association. The Men to Retaliate,

He went on to say: "I might as well will be laid against Frick, Carnegie and Potter. Whether we will bring anyone else into it I cannot say at present. I tell you we will make this Mr. Frick come down on his knees so hard that the sound will be heard in the fartheaest corner of civilization." "Yes," put in one of those present," and once the warrants are issued we will have Cargie extradited on short McLuckie Looked Up.

Alderman McMasters waited in hi office until 8 o'clock and than none of the other accused putting in an appearance, he committed the burgess to the county jail without bail, pending a preliminary hearing on Friday. In custody of Constale Price and accompanied by Jery Dougherty an offical of he amalgamated assn and those Coogan and George Clark, millmen he walked to the county jail. On the outside he shook hands with his friends and then passed through the iron gate. After being scrached by Chief Warden McAlse who found in his pockets nothirg more dangerous than the key to Homestead lockup he was taken to a cell of the first tier and locked up. Half an hour later he was fast asleep. A petition for McLuckie's release on bail will be made in the morning.

Lovejoy Grows Sagacious.

Secretary Lovejoy of the Carnegie company was in good spirits tonigh over the success of his maneuvre and in an interview explained at length the circumstances which brought on the step. He said: "These informations step. file said: "These informations were entered in my capacity as a private citizen and not as secretary of the Caruegie company. There are good cases against 1,000 of these men and from now on twelve to fifteen arrests will be made every day. The idea is to make them just as fast as the authorities can handle them. We have evidence against 1,000 men and we propose to push these cases. The we propose to push these cases. HOMESTEAD, July 18 .- Not since night when Governor Pattieon ordered the state troops to Homestead was the borough thrown into such a fever of excitement as it was this evening when Pitteburg, and that six or seven men charged had given themselves up to the authorities. About 6 p. m. two men walked into the office of Squire Kuhne, a local magistrate, and made inquiries of the piaces of residence of Burgess McLuckie and other strike leaders. They refused to tell why they desired the information. The inquiries were continued at other places and suspicion as to the real character of their business became aroused when they were recognized as Constables Price and Irwin.

The suspicion was not verified, however, until about 4 o'clock when H. M. Williamson, a member of the Homestead borough council and also a member of the local advisory committee on the strike, arrived in Homestead from Pittsburg with the information that warrants had been issued. THREE PERSONS ARE KILLED

A Number Injured and Missing-The Small Loss of Life Little Short

MESSITON, Out., July 18 .- One of the worst accidents that ever happened in this vicinity occurred about 1:45 o'clock this morning. The mail train on the Welland division of the Grand Trunk railway, from Port Dalhouse, bound south and the accommodation from Niagara Falls, bound north to connect with the steamer Empress of India, met in collision a short distance north of this station at a particularly bad point. A short wooden bridge crosses the water-power raceway and the engine of the boat train had just crossed it when the trains met, and the first two coaches of the boat train were thrown from the track over the bank, plunging into the race stream which flows rapidly past. The engine was demolished and thrown over the opposite bank. Efforts were at once made to rescue the killed and wounded. Three bodies have been so far removed.

Three bodies have been so far removed.

They are:
S. I. Chamyanenger, of the mail train, of Port Colborn.

David Hunt, fireman of the boat train, of Niagara Falls.

H. Vanelyke, Buffalo, a passenger.

The injured are:
Conductor Boyle, severely cut about the head, leg and arms.

Brakeman Porter Welsh, injured internally

Baggageman William Spratt, leg

Postal Clerk Boyle, slightly injured Express Messenger P. Grobb, badly intured Engineer Heslop, slightly injured.

Fireman Powely, slightly injured.
Brakeman Johnson, injured in the head, and several others are slightly injured and several others are missing. It is difficult to arrive at the cause of the collision but this much is knows that the trains usually cross at Port Dalhousie and the train for the steamer being late at Merriton, endeavored to make St. Catherines before meeting the mail train with the above result. Owing to the position of the wreck it is impossible to tell whether all the dead have been found.

The smoker of the boat train pitched headlong into the raceway and it is under this car that it is supposed there are yet some dead bodies. Both trains are a total wreck and the small loss of life is regarded as almost a miracle.

TWICE HANGED AND STILL ALIVE. Unpleasant Experience of a Suspecte

Murderer in the Hands of a Mob. FRESNO, Cal., July 18 .- It is not often tions of hanging, yet this is what has befailen Michael Blume, who was lynched near here as the suspected murderer of A. G. Haskins, Mr. Hasmurderer of A. G. Haskins. Mr. Haskins removed Mr. Blume and a companion from pienic grounds for bringing in liquor. They swore revenge. A fortnight afterward Mr. Haskins was killed as he was crossing a flume at night. Mr. Blume was arrested and placed in jail at Sanger. Although the constable knew there were threats of lynching he

Friday night masked men obtained acces, to Blume's cell with a key, took him to the scene of Haskin's murder, tied a rope around his neck and flung it over the flume and than told him he could have his last word.

Blume's story is at follows: "The men pulled me up, I felt the jerk and thought my neck was broken. I knew nothing more until I found myself lying on the ground. When I was myself again the men asked me if I would said I had no accomplices. I was again pulled up and lost consciousness again. The next I knew I was in the Sanger jail. The door was locked and I was alone. This morning I was put in a wagon and brought here to Fresno. I

TONAWANDA, N. Y., July 18 .- A oung Borgia has been discovered here in the person of Ella Holderidge, aged 14 years, daughter of Frankin Hol-deridge. Last Wednesday Mrs. Luman Eggleston went to Buffalo, leaving her daughters, Susie and Jennie, aged 10 and 4 respectively, in the care of Mrs. Garlock. During the afternoon Ella Holderidge came over to the Garlock house with something mixed up in the cover of a tin box. Some of this she fed to the Eggleton children and to the 6-year-old son of Mrs. Garlock, telling them it was coose.

Soon after the children were taken violently ill. Dr. Edmonds was called and relieved their suffering, but it was some hours before they were out of showed that the children had been given "rough on rate." The Holderidge girl would give no reason for her conduct. She was arrested.

Accident at a Crossing. MANCHESTER-BY-THE-SEA, Mass., July 18.—Cornelius Vanderbilt's life was saved by only s hair's breadth today.
This morning the Rev. Mr. Green, who is Mr. Vanderbii's guest, was to preach at Emanuel's church, and was riding there with Mr. Vanderbii in the latter's vehicle. Just as the horse reached the vehicle. Just as the horse reached the railroad crossing, near Sunset Rock a train dashed up. Mr. Vanderbilt called to his coachman to stop, but he could not do so, and seeing that eafety lay in speed alone, lashed his horses with the whip. The animals sprang forward and cleared the track just in time to escape the engine. It was an exceedingly narrow escape for the New Yorker and his guest.

SENDING OUT QUOTATIONS.

The Telegraph Companies Outwit the Board of Trade Officials.

CHICAGO, July 18 .- The Western Unon and Postal Telegraph companies began today the dissemination of board of trade quotations. For several weeks of trade quotations. For several weeks past and since the directors revoked ex-President Baker's order forbidding the telegriph companies these privileges preparations have been going on among the telegraph companies for sending out the quotations to all parts of the country. The companies were driven off the floor by President Baker in his efforts to close up the bucket shops. Shortly afterward members were detected supplying bucket shops with quotations by means of a code of signs and were suspended to prevent the quotations being supplied. All efforts of the administration to prevent forts of the administration to prevent the quotations from being supplied to the bucket shops proved fruitless, and as a result the telegraph companies were permitted to resume their old GROVER ON THE PLATFORM.

If Non-Union Men Are Employed.

It Means the Worst to Come.

For the Towns Are Down in the Canons at the Mercy of the Men.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 18 .- The condition of affairs in the Cour D'Alene district is alarming. There seems to be a conviction settling down that there is on foot a scheme of an aggressive character on the part of the Miners' union, though as to what this move may be opinion is divided. The opinion seems only done what was customary and secured the consent of a majority of the committee on the floor. The chair quoted the rules that "On a call of committees for motions to suspend the rules, such motion to be in order must be authorized by the committee acting as a committee," and the bill was drawn, Mr. Cutting stating he had no intention to infract any rule of the house and was only attempting to perform his duty as he felt it under the circumstances.

Pickets were sent still further up on the bills, and all points were carefully watched. This morning another detachment of troops was sent to Gem. A full force of men will be put at work clearing the Freco mill of debris and restoring it to a working condition as fast as possible. It probable that many of the union m now under arrest will be turned out on parole. Six who had been taken with the others, but against none of whom charges could be brought, were liberated today. somewhere, or put into the hands of others. The Gem mine will start a full force of non-union men Tuesday night, and the 'Frisco will start Wednesday, also with non-union men. A squad of twenty-five regulars started up nine mile canon this morning. They will camp up there. The strikers in the meetings have sent down word that they intend to carry on a guerrilla warfare. This warfare wor rible. The troops and towns are down in the canon at the mercy of the strikers on the sides of the mountains. This move bas expected for some time. Promi action on the part of the troops in cutting off supplies from the strikers thus forcing them to come down out of the mountains would shorten the fight.
